PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Monrovia, 10 September 2026

NLA DIRECTS THAT ONLY THE AUTHORITY MAY ISSUE LIBERIA GAMING LICENCES AND THAT ALL FEES MUST BE PAID TO THE NLA ACCOUNT AT GT BANK

The National Lottery Authority today issued an administrative directive confirming that it is the only body in Liberia that may issue gaming licenses, that instruments issued by contractors or so-called agents are not NLA licenses, and that all associated Fees must be paid into the Authority's USD account at Guaranty Trust Bank (Liberia) Limited.

The Director General, Hon. Peter L. Solo, said: "A contractor may build a platform. A contractor may not become the State. Operators who paid someone else for a 'Liberia license' have not bought an NLA license. They should write to us. We will say what, if anything, stands on our books, and we will receive applications for reissue into an account we control."

The Authority also states that no "Liberia Online Gaming and Casino Commission" exists in law, that a published €50,000 "turnkey" price is not the official tariff, and that conference meetings sold as official are official only if the Director General has named the attendees in writing.

The designated account is: National Lottery Authority, Guaranty Trust Bank (Liberia) Limited, Clara Town, USD Current Account 007002105342201054, SWIFT GTBILRLM. USD correspondent: Citibank New York, SWIFT CITIUS33, account 36922859. Payment references should state the operator's name and "NLA license fee."
